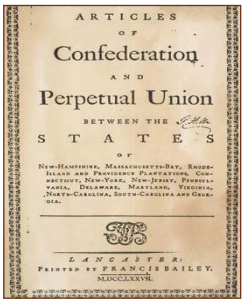
Presidents Before Washington:
Under the First System of Government

Our Guest Speaker for the Spring Dinner is Mark Croatti. His lecture features the "presidents" who came before George Washington—the ones who led the nation under the Articles of Confederation. While many people have heard of the Articles of Confederation, few realize that it served as America's first constitution: a unitary system of government focused on a unicameral Congress presided over by a "president."

What responsibilities did this single chamber version of Congress have? What powers did the states have and what did their "presidents" do? Why weren't the debts that were left over from the Revolutionary War paid off—and whose responsibility was it anyway? Most importantly, why did a second constitution become necessary?

The first system of "American government," from 1774–1789, was more parliamentary than presidential; more of a regional entity than a single country; and more of a team effort than competing factions. That soon changed, however, for reasons that may surprise you. On March 4, 1789, the Articles of Confederation were replaced with the federal government under the U.S. Constitution. Mr. Croatti will share these seldom-told stories of early American history.



ARTICLES
Confederation
AND
Perpetual Union
BETWEEN THE
LANCASTER:
PRINTED BY FRANCIS BAILEY.
M.DCC.LXXVII.

The "Articles of Confederation and Perpetual Union," adopted on November 15, 1777, was an agreement among the thirteen original states that established the functions of government. Maryland was the last holdout.

Mark Croatti presents his study of the pre-constitution presidents of the Continental Congress.

Mr. Croatti teaches politics at The George Washington University and American Government and foreign policy-related courses at American University. The University of Maryland (College Park and Baltimore campuses), and The U.S. Naval Academy. He is the director of The Treaty of Paris Center in Annapolis, MD. He also covers politics for Annapolis magazine and is the Director of the Annapolis Forum. He is also known for his teachings on conflict resolution in the Middle East.

We look forward to this interesting and informative presentation. See page 12 for details.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Mayflower Cousins:

The groundhog saw his shadow and the snow has finally melted. Since the Compact Dinner last November, our Society has been busy. But, first, we mourn the passing of our long-time Historian and past Governor, Claire Richardson, on December 25, 2015. Claire leaves behind a lasting legacy.

Deputy Governor Tim Mallory and I held our first genealogy workshop on January 16, 2016, at the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore. From the feedback received, the workshop was extremely successful. It was so successful that your Board agreed that we should hold another workshop this Fall.

The digitization of our historical records led by Historian, Dwight Mason, is well underway. This is a slow and painstaking process but it is badly needed. Our thanks to Dwight. I also want to welcome David Kinzer in his new role as Captain, replacing Fritz Briggs. David is continuing in his role as member-at-large and leading our new Technology Committee. In addition, our "Dress Like a Pilgrim" project is proceeding and costumer/designer, Susan Battles Brown, will be holding fittings at the Spring Dinner for costumes ordered. We hope to have these costumes completed for the Compact Dinner on November 20, 2016, at the Lord Baltimore Hotel. Our speaker will be Governor General Lea Filson.

The Friends of the Maryland Mayflower Society is in place. This program will permit us to recognize (1) spouses of members, i.e., those who cannot be members in their own right; (2) other persons who are also—or would be—interested in furthering the goals of our Society; and (3) adopted children of members, if they are not otherwise eligible for membership. I challenge our members to have their spouses join this program. A goal should be that every spouse be a "Friend" by the Spring Dinner so that they can be recognized. We want the whole family to be part of our Maryland Society!

I look forward to seeing all of you in Annapolis on May 1st.

Yours in preserving our Mayflower Heritage,

James Bruce Battles
Governor, Maryland Mayflower Society

Maryland Mayflower Scholarship

Gini Patterson, Scholarship Chairman

We have a winner! The announcement will be made at the Spring Dinner, so be sure to attend. The winning essay will be printed in the Fall issue.

HISTORIAN'S OFFICE: NEEDS ASSISTANCE

Due to the many new inquiries and applications, our Historian, Dwight Mason, needs your help. If you enjoy genealogy and would like to assist the Historian and prospective members with their paperwork in joining our Society, this is the ideal job for you! Contact Dwight, historian@MarylandMayflower.org.

Dress Like a Pilgrim

Costumes for the 400th Celebration!

As our 400th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims nears, we want to dress the part! Our Society is fortunate to have its own historic costumer, Susan Scott Battles Brown. Susan, who made the costumes shown in the Chilton's Challenge DVD, has graciously agreed to make costumes for our members. Fittings will be held at the Spring Dinner. We hope to have these costumes completed for the Compact Day Dinner in November.

Cost: A basic custom-made costume is approximately $200 ($100.00 for labor plus $100.00 for material, depending on fabric, trim, buttons, and other details).

E-Mail Reminder

GO GREEN

The Maryland Society uses e-mail whenever possible to communicate with members. We encourage members to subscribe to the e-mail version of this newsletter. There are several advantages:

- You receive your newsletter earlier than the printed copy,
- the newsletter is in color,
- you can enlarge the newsletter to make it easier to read, and
- it saves printing and postage costs.

If you would like to receive a digital copy of the newsletter via e-mail, please provide your e-mail address to the Corresponding Secretary, Nancy Young. The newsletter is also available on our Maryland Society website, www.MarylandMayflower.org. Also, please contact us if there are any changes to your membership, including death, marriage, e-mail or address changes.

Your Loving Wife, Susanna

Adapted from Plimoth Life, Vol. 13

Plymouth's first marriage

William Bradford described the marriage between Susanna and Edward Winslow as, "the first marriage in this place which, according to the laudable custom of the Low Countries.... [was] performed by a magistrate as being a civil thing..." --William Bradford

Susanna White and her husband, William, were members of the Separatist community in Leiden. She sailed on the Mayflower with her husband and their five-year old son, Resolved. One of three pregnant women aboard the ship, Susanna gave birth after the Mayflower arrived, off Cape Cod. A colonist reported that, "it pleased God that Mistress White was brought... a son." A 1655 land grant noted that Peregrine was "the first of the English that was born in these parts."

William White died on February 21, 1621. Ten weeks later, Susanna married Edward Winslow, another passenger whose wife had died during that first harsh winter. The new couple had five children. Only two, Josiah and Elizabeth, reached to adulthood.

Edward and Susanna Winslow spent almost half of their married life apart. In addition to serving several terms as governor, Winslow acted as diplomat and business agent for the Plymouth and Massachusetts Bay colonies on at least four extended trips to England. With the help of an agent and several servants, Susanna managed "Careswell," the family's large estate in Marshfield, North of Plymouth.

Leaving Plymouth Colony in 1646, Edward Winslow was in England for the last nine years of their marriage. Nonetheless, sustained ties of affection are evident. In 1651, Winslow, who had his portrait painted in London, is depicted holding a letter. The text is illegible, but the signature is clear—"From yr loving wife Susanna." Edward Winslow died at sea near Jamaica on May 8, 1655. Susanna Winslow died between 1654 and 1675.

BECOME A "FRIEND"

Friends of the Maryland Mayflower Society

Last Fall, our Board approved a membership called "Friends of the Maryland Mayflower Society." This new category recognizes and welcomes individuals who are not eligible for membership in our Society by descent, but nevertheless are bound to us by family ties or shared interests. This new category includes:

- spouses of members;
- family members of current and deceased members;
- persons who believe they have a Mayflower line, but are unable to prove their lineage;
- persons who are interested in furthering our goals;
- adopted children of members (please note children do not count, as they need to become junior members).

"Friends" will not need to provide a birth certificate or any other documents since this is a special category that does not involve Mayflower lineage. In addition, "Friends" are welcome to participate in Society activities, attend dinners and meetings, and serve on committees.

The fee is $20.00 per year, or $400.00 for lifetime membership. To apply, submit the application found in this newsletter to Historian Dwight Nelson.

Compact Day Dinner

The Pilgrims' First Fifty Years

Our annual Compact Day Dinner was held on Sunday, November 22, 2015, at the Inn at Brookeville Farms. Governor Jim Battles introduced our Guest Speakers, Andrew Cameron Bailey and Connie Baxter Marlow. Their lecture, which included a slide presentation, covered the Pilgrims' First Fifty Years. They detailed the friendship and peaceful coexistence between the Pilgrim settlers and the Pokanoket Wampanoag Indians between 1621 and 1675.

Deputy Governor General Ben Proctor presented the GSMD Certificate of Commendation and Appreciation to our members, Carolyn and Jim Fowler. Carolyn, currently a Board member-at-large, was recognized for her service as State Historian and her assistance in mentoring other State historians. Jim was recognized for his service as Recording Secretary and chair of the Millennium Voyage Committee. Although the Commendation award normally goes to only one person per State, the Committee made an exception. Congratulations, Carolyn and Jim.

A photographer from The Baltimore Sun took pictures and interviewed guests for an article published on Thanksgiving Day entitled, "For Mayflower Descendants, Thanksgiving is a Family Affair."

The GSMD awarded Jim and Carolyn Fowler the Certificate of Commendation and Appreciation.

Guest Speakers Andrew Cameron Bailey and Connie Baxter Marlow gave us an informative slide presentation.

Sailing on the Sultana

A reproduction of a British Royal Navy Schooner

Sunday, October 30, 2016, 1:00 - 3:30 p.m.

Departs from Chestertown, Maryland

This year's Family & Juniors Field Trip will be sailing on board the Sultana. The Sultana is a reproduction of a Boston-built merchant vessel that served for four years as the smallest schooner in the British Royal Navy. Manned by a 25-person crew, the original Sultana patrolled the coastline of colonial North America from 1768 to 1772, enforcing the hated Townsend Acts or "Tea Taxes." Sultana and her crew had a unique vantage point on the conflict that ultimately became the American Revolution.

Downrigging Weekend

The Tall Ship & Wooden Boat Festival
October 26-31, 2016

The Downrigging Weekend started 15 years ago when ships took a casual sail on the Chester River before they were "downrigged" for the Winter. The weekend's activities now includes the Tall Ship & Wooden Boat Festival, one of the largest annual tall ship gatherings on the East Coast.

What to expect:

- a waterfront packed with ships, schooners, and wooden boats;
- performances by world-class musicians;
- lectures by nationally recognized authors and filmmakers;
- opportunities to go sailing as part of a fleet of "Tall Ships";
- chance to spend the weekend in Chestertown–one of America's best preserved historic seaports;
- enjoy the Fall colors at their peak.

Weekend: Come early and explore the festival or make a weekend of it. This is a perfect opportunity for children and grandchildren to experience sailing on a ship similar to the one our ancestors sailed. NOTE: For safety reasons, children under five (5) years of age are not permitted to sail.

Sail Time: Sunday, October 30, 2016, 1:00 - 3:30 p.m.

Space is limited to only 30 passengers. Please register early by completing the reservation form found in this newsletter.

For more information, visit Sultana's website, www.SultanaEducation.org.

DC Preview Screening

Saints & Strangers:

the real story of the first Thanksgiving

On Sunday, November 15, 2015, our Governor Jim Battles and Deputy Governor Tim Mallory, and their spouses, attended the prescreening of the movie, Saints & Strangers, at the National Geographic headquarters in Washington, D.C. The movie was billed as "a story that goes beyond the familiar historical account of Thanksgiving and the founding of Plymouth [sic Plimoth] Plantation, revealing the trials and tribulations of the settlers at Plymouth." A Question & Answer session was held with some of the cast and producers following the pre-screening.

Saints & Strangers, a four-hour mini-series, aired two nights on the National Geographic Channel, November 22-23, 2015, just before Thanksgiving. The quality of the film with its production, sets, costumes, language, and the portrayal by the actors is impressive. For those who missed it, a DVD version is available for purchase for $16.99 at various online stores. The movie trailer can be found on youtube at: www.youtube.com/watch?v=TdP8y916SHs.

400th Anniversary

Commemorative Coin Campaign

Now before the U.S. Legislation!

We need your help in campaigning for the General Society's Mayflower Coin Project. The General Society has a request before Congress to have the U.S. Mint issue a series of commemorative coins recognizing the 400th anniversary of the Mayflower voyage. The Bill was assigned to a congressional committee on July 8, 2015. If you would like to see U.S. coins that commemorate our 400th anniversary, please contact your local representatives and senators.

The Bill: The Bill directs the Treasury Department to issue up to 50,000 gold coins and 100,000 $1 silver commemorative coins. These coins will be issued for a one-year period, beginning January 1, 2020. For more information, you can search H.R. Bill 2980 and S. 1715 at www.govtrack.us.

Selection: Only two coins are minted each year. To be selected, we need 287 members of Congress and 67 Senators to sign on as co-sponsors.

Contact: Please e-mail your local congressman to help support this bill. To find the names of your local legislators, visit: www.govtrack.us/congress/members/md. Sample e-mails to send to your congressmen and senators can be downloaded from the General Society website, www.TheMayflowerSociety.org/2020-commemoration.
